

Roses

Fashion

Art

Art in Fashion

A profusion of huge cabbage roses in shades of pink will set the mood for the Fashion Luncheon Benefit to be staged by the Little Company of Mary Hospital Auxiliary Thursday at the Ports o'Call restaurant. Admiring one of the cabbage roses and working out final plans for the event are committee members, from top of the stairs, Mmes. Ted Whitting, ways and means chairman; G. L. Claypool, co-chairman; Robert V. Brown, tickets; Chester Widmann, fashion coordinator, and Stanley R. Coughlan, program. Proceeds will go to the hospital's building fund. (Press-Herald Photo)

Hospital Auxiliary's Annual Event

Fashion Luncheon Benefit To Be Artistic Display

Wicker baskets filled with cabbage roses in graduating shades of pink will be table centerpieces when the Auxiliary to the Little Company of Mary Hospital stages its annual Fashion Luncheon Benefit at the Ports o'Call restaurant on May 27.

"The Art of Fashion" will be the theme of this year's event with designer fashions provided by a Redondo fashion salon. Adding to the elegant display of spring and summer fashions will be a hat show presented by "Hats by Armond" of Beverly Hills. Mrs. Dorothy Widman will model for this phase of the show, while six professional models will show the new dress fashions.

Mrs. Nadeen McNulty will serve as commentator.

Emphasizing the "Art of Fashion" theme, paintings by leading South Bay artists will be exhibited.

Mrs. George Olivieri, president of the auxiliary, has announced that a social hour will begin at 11 a.m., with luncheon served at 12 noon. During the luncheon and fashion show, organ music will be played by Ted Whitting.

Mrs. Karl Ransom is serving as general chairman of the affair, with Mrs. Gilvan L. Claypool as co-chairman. Mrs. Chester H. Widmann will be fashion coordinator and ticket sales are being handled by Mrs. Robert Brown.

Other committee chairmen assisting include Mmes. Ted Whitting, Frank Snyder, John Hahn, Stanley Coughlan, Theodore McNeer, Arthur Grayson, Robert McLaughlin and Teresa Fajen.

All proceeds from this outstanding social event will go to the Little Company of Mary hospital building fund.

At Wayfarers Inn June 5

Dianas to Seat Officer Panel

Mrs. Eric Lindgren will be installed as president of the Redondo Beach Dianas at a luncheon meeting at the Wayfarers Inn on June 5. Mrs. Charles Hillinger, past Marina District president and past Diana president, will be the installing officer.

MRS. ERIC LINDGREN
... New President

The new president has been a resident of the South Bay since 1955 and has been a Diana since 1956, serving in many offices and chairmanships.

Prior to her marriage, she was an airline stewardess. She is a member of Star-dusters, former Western Airline stewardesses, a charter member of the Salvation Army Auxiliary and a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. She and her husband are both active in the South Bay YM-CA. They have a son Kurt, four years old.

Others to be installed are Miss Sara Mitchell, Mrs. Raymond Williams and Anthony Credico, vice-presidents; Gordon Watt, corresponding secretary; Earl Duke, recording secretary; Joseph Carrier, program chairman; Paul Mitchell, treasurer; and William Tolliffe, parliamentarian.

Guests at the luncheon will be the Dianas' new coordinators from the Women's Club, Mrs. John Moore and Mrs. Winifred Van Gilder.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

MAY 26, 1965

B-1

Jaycee and Jaycettes Joint Installation

At a joint installation dinner dance at the Redondo Elks Club on Saturday evening, May 29, new officers of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce and Jaycettes will be installed.

A cocktail hour will begin at 6:30 p.m., with dinner at 7:30. The installations will follow the dinner, after which the group will hear their keynote speaker, Robert Oran, State of California Junior Chamber of Commerce administrative vice president for 1964-65.

Mrs. Douglas Hedde, past president of the Jaycettes, will install the new officers in the women's organization. They are Mmes. M. R. Davis, president; W. Walter and J. R. Spaan, vice-presidents; Harold Lindborg, recording secretary; E. J. Clauson, treasurer, and J. M. Hussey, corresponding secretary.

Harold D. Smith, past president of the Torrance Jaycees and district governor in 1964-65, will install the new Junior Chamber officers. They are J. Douglas Hedde, president; Ralph Gansmer, internal vice-president; Jon Hardin, external vice-president; Ronald Steward, state auditor; Richard Spaan, secretary; James B. Hussey, treasurer. Directors are Ralph Grippo, William Morris, Harold D. Smith, William O. Walters and Michael Zappitelli.

Dancing will conclude the evening's activities.

Lady Lions Install

Torrance Lioness Club will install its new officers on June 5 at a dinner meeting at the Tasman Seas restaurant. Husbands and guests are invited. Mrs. Milton Isbell, chairman, gave the report on the final plans for the event at the meeting of the Lady Lions at the home of Mrs. John Ritchie, 27930 Alvarez Dr., Palos Verdes, on May 11.

Mrs. Walter Keberlein, president, announced that the club will be guests of the San Pedro Lioness Club on June 11. This will be the last social of the year.

During a social hour, refreshments were served to Mmes. Fred Boren, Tom Burchfield, Paul Burnam, Clarence Clark, Albert Ewalt, Mott Farrell, Milton Isbell, Albert Isen, Walter Keberlein, Ike McTea, Ross Morris, Cecil Powell, Pete Radisch, Al Redisch, John Ritchie, Abe Robinson, Jack Smith, and Sam Van Wagner.

To Take the Reins

Jaycettes, in a joint installation with their husbands, members of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce, will seat their new officers for the coming year at a dinner-dance Saturday evening. Assuming duties of the top offices of the club will be, from left, seated, Mmes. M. R. Davis, president; J. R. Spaan, second vice-president; standing, from left, E. J. Clauson, treasurer; W. Walters, first vice-president, and J. Hussey, corresponding secretary.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Job's Daughters to Install

Miss Donna Hedrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hedrick, 22403 Marjorie Ave., will be installed as Honored Queen of Bethel 50, International Order of Job's Daughters, at its 76th semi-annual public installation, Saturday evening, June 5, at the Torrance Masonic Temple, at 8 p.m.

Miss Hedrick, who will graduate this year from South High School in Torrance, will succeed Miss Judy Osborn, retiring Honored Queen.

The other line officers for this term are Robin Bingham, senior princess; Barbara Stutler, junior princess; Cheryl Petersen, guide; and Patti Moore, marshal.

Tommy Wilkes will act as master of ceremonies; Leonard Babcock, minister; John Polliard, narrator; Mrs. Carolyn Petersen, guardian; and Charles Moore, associate guardian.

Appointive officers to be installed are Linda Wigg, chaplain; Loretta Brase, recorder; Kathy Warne, musician; Sheila Brase, librarian; Debra Dahlen, treasurer; Lesley Barrington, senior custodian; Jackie Hizen, junior custodian; Linda Hawley, Pam Rhodes, Marie Stilwell, Linda Sanford, and Cindi Bailey, messengers; Carol Gordy and Cindy Tolson, guards; Nannette Virden, electrician; Darlene Davis, banner bearer; and Claudia Yates, obligation chairman.

DONNA HEDRICK
... Honored Queen
(Roberts Photo)

New Orleans—Their Destination

Mrs. William Geach, left, incoming chairman of the Harbor District Chapter, Women's Committee of the American Institute of Banking, and Mrs. Lowell Lutz, retiring chairman, look over their publicity book, which they will take to the National AIB convention in New Orleans, La., the first week in June. Other voting delegates from the Harbor Chapter attending will be Dean Anderson, president, and Bob Correia. Other members of the party, traveling to the deep south, will be Judge and Mrs. Fred Kepka, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kirkpatrick, Lowell Lutz and William Geach. (Press-Herald Photo)